- 4b. For publication purposes, any and all changes to repertoire must be finalized no later than May 15th, 2016.
5. Candidates must play all pieces from memory, with the exception of the Sonata portion. Competitors may use music on the Sonata portion.
 6. The SIVC will accept up to 12 candidate application packages.
 7. If the amount of applicants is greater than 12 then we will request all of the applicants to resubmit a DVD recording of the applicant's selected Concerto movement. We will hold a preselection round and select 12 of the applicants, who will then continue to the Semi-Final round. The Semi-Final and Final Rounds of the competition will be held in Salt Lake City, Utah July 11th -16th, 2016.
 8. The SIVC will send a confirmation of participation to all applicants, electronically and/or in writing, by May 15th, 2016. The confirmation will include a detailed schedule of events along with the competitor's performance and rehearsal times at Libby Gardner Hall in Salt Lake City on July 11th-12th, 2016. Candidates accepted as competitors must confirm their intention to participate in the competition by returning the confirmation form sent to competitors within two weeks of receipt. The SIVC must receive the confirmation form no later than two weeks following the initial notification. If a candidate declines the offer to participate, another candidate may be selected in their place.
 9. Changes may be made to the competitor's program for the Semi-Final and Final Round as long as the music chosen meets the requirements stated in section three. Any changes to the competitor's program must be finalized by May 15th, 2016. After that date, no changes shall be permitted. Following reasonable negotiation with the competitor, the decision of the competition committee on this matter is final.
 10. The competitors agree to the use of their names and/or photographs and/or biographies in the publications and on the websites of the Stradivarius International Violin Competition and Charles W. Liu Fine Violins.
 11. The Stradivarius International Violin Competition authorities retain the right to reject any application that does not conform in its entirety to the competition regulations.
 12. By signing the application, the applicant agrees to accept the rules and regulations of the Stradivarius International Violin Competition.

Competition Procedures

13. All Utah Division competitors under the age of 18 must be accompanied by a supervising adult (i.e. parent or legal guardian). If the adult accompanying the competitor is not a legal guardian, SIVC must have written consent from the legal guardian of the competitor.

The SIVC will not provide boarding for the competitors, as the SIVC Utah Division is only for Utah Residents living in Utah. The competitor is also responsible for all expenses associated with travel, food and transportation to and from the competition.

14. Each competitor is to provide their own piano accompaniment for the entire competition. The SIVC will not provide piano accompanists for the competitors.
15. If the number of applicants exceeds 12, a Pre-screening round will be held, which will run as follows:

All applicants must submit a DVD recording of their selected Concerto movement by April 29th 2016 or the application will NOT be considered. The pre-selection jury will review the application forms, supporting documentation, materials, and the video recordings provided by the candidates. The SIVC will consider no other material.

Following adjudication, the pre-selection jury will submit their recommendations to the competition committee for review. Competitors will be selected based on these recommendations. The decision of the competition committee on candidates selected for competition is final and there is no right of appeal to the decision. The recommendations of the pre-selection jury and the deliberations of the competition committee are not available for public scrutiny. The SIVC will send a confirmation of participation to the 12 accepted applicants, electronically and/or in writing, no later than May 15th, 2016.

16. The competition committee will accept a maximum of 12 competitors to participate in the Semi-Final Round. The SIVC will hold the Semi-Final Round in Salt Lake City, Utah on July 11th & 12th, 2016. The judges will allow up to 5 Semi-Finalists to advance to the Final Round. The names of those competitors who will participate in the Finals will be announced at approximately 7:00 p.m. on Wednesday, July 13th during the Opening Ceremonies. Competitors must be present at the announcement in order to advance to the Final Round, or they will be automatically eliminated. The 5 finalists will compete on Saturday, July 16th. The winner will be announced that same evening at the Final Concert.
17. The Semi-final round (July 11th -12th, 2016) of the competition will run as follows:
 - A. Semi-final round programs are limited to 25 minutes each. They are to be accompanied by piano where appropriate. This round will be hosted at Libby Gardner Hall at the University of Utah, School of Music.
 - B. There will be two separate segments to the Semi-final Round. Each segment will have a different program for the competitors to perform. All competitors will participate in both segments.
 - C. The competitor's order of appearance in the competition shall be placed in alphabetical order by the competitor's surname.
 - D. The judges will score each competitor's performance separately.
The First Segment of the Semi-final Round program will include:

First Segment of the Semi-final round

Performance (July 11th)

- a. One unaccompanied Caprice from Pierre Rode's 24 Caprices.
Or Any ONE movement of an unaccompanied Bach Partita or Sonata.

- b. One movement from any Concerto selected from the required list above.

(see section 21 for elimination procedures)

A pre-selected panel of three judges, appointed by the competition committee to judge the SIVC Utah Division, will undertake the selection process of both segments of the Semi-final round. The SIVC will consider no other material.

18. The Final Round (July 16th, 2013) of the competition will run as follows:
 - A. After the announcement of the five finalists, a drawing will be held to determine the order that they will play in the Final Round.
 - B. Final round programs are limited to 25 minutes each.
 - C. The Final Round program will include the same material performed in the Second Segment of the Semi-final Round.
 - D. The Final Round is to be accompanied by the competitor's selected pianist. This round will be hosted at Libby Gardner Hall in Salt Lake City, Utah, on the morning of Saturday, July 16th, 2016.
 - E. The competitors subsequently will be announced ranking 1st prize to 5th prize. This announcement will be made at the official Closing Ceremony of the SIVC at 7:00 p.m. on July 16th, 2016. The decision of the competition committee on candidates selected for competition is final and there is no right of appeal to the decision. The recommendations of the pre-selected jury and the deliberations of the competition committee are not available for public scrutiny.

(see section 20 for ranking procedures)

19. All competitors must check in at the SIVC information booth no later than 20 minutes prior to their scheduled rehearsal time. All competitors will be informed of their times and schedules well in advance of the competition. If a competitor misses their allotted time for rehearsal, there will be no makeup times. NO EXCEPTIONS.

20. Elimination from the rounds shall proceed as follows:
- a. The jury will not discuss with each other the scoring of the competition. Competitors will be scored by each judge individually and separately. The top 5 competitors of all the Utah Division competitors with the highest cumulative scores will proceed to the Final Round.
 - b. All 5 selected competitors will be awarded prizes at the Final Concert. Competitors must be present to receive their awards.
 - c. The Final Round jury will include the Utah Division Judges as well as 2 SIVC Junior Division Judges.
 - d. For the Final Round of the competition the competitors will be scored by each judge individually and separately. The highest cumulative score will take first place, the second highest will be second place and so on until the fifth place. Prizes will be awarded to all the winners. The competitor ranking 6th place in the Semi-final Round will also receive a Recognition Award of $100. The ranking of the 5 Finalists and the Recognition Award will not be disclosed until the closing ceremony of the SIVC on Saturday night, July 16th. Competitors must be present to receive their award.
 - e. The decisions of the Jury in these respects are final and the competitor shall be permitted no appeal.
 - f. Following the completion of the competition, all of the competitors eliminated are allowed to discuss any aspect of the competitor's personal performance in the competition with any member of the jury. However, the jurors are not obliged to have such discussions.
21. Competitors are not permitted to speak to any member of the jury for the duration of their participation in the competition (or after their elimination) except at the conclusion of the competition as provided in Rule 20f above.
22. Competitors are not permitted to take instruction and/or coaching for violin from any person for the duration of their participation in the competition, commencing on July 11th, 2016.
23. All rounds of the competition are open to the public and free of charge. During the competition if there is to be a performance(s) by guest artist(s) there will be a small entrance fee.
24. The final jury of the competition will award first, second, third, fourth, fifth, and Recognition Award prizes. The five finalist competitors will be asked to play at the Final Concert. The Winners are required to perform at the Final Concert in order to receive their awards. All five competitors must be present at the Final Concert or their awards will be forfeited. An award will also be announced and presented to the 6th place Semi-finalist. Semi-finalists must be present in order to receive his/her award or it will be forfeited. The competitors will not be informed of their rank until the public announcement at the Final Concert is made. The SIVC will announce the results at the conclusion of the Final Concert on Saturday July 16th, 2016. The jury is entitled to absolute discretion not to award any prize or prizes.

27. We place these conditions of acceptance on the 1st place Utah Division Winner.
- a. The Grand Prize Winner will appear as a soloist with the Salt Lake Symphony. Competitors hoping to win the Grand Prize will be required to perform their selected concerto in its entirety (all movements included) and must be prepared to do so for the performance with the Salt Lake Symphony. The dates of these performances will be determined at a later date.
 - b. Upon completion of the Competition, the Salt Lake Symphony will make arrangements with the Winner for a performance in their upcoming season. Winners will receive no compensation from the Salt Lake Symphony.
 - c. Repertoire for the Salt Lake Symphony performance will be mutually agreed upon between the concert's conductor and the Winner. If no mutual agreement is made, and the concert is therefore cancelled or postponed, the SIVC will be under no further obligation to provide performance opportunities or any correspondence between the two parties. All arrangements will be made strictly between the Orchestras and the Winner.
30. The organizer is entitled to make audio and video recordings of all performances and other events during the competition and to use them in connection therewith. The organizer shall record all performances and other events in part or in whole and shall broadcast them live and/or later and/or pass these recordings on to other broadcasters. Competition participants shall not be entitled to claim any remuneration for these recordings. Competitors will allow the recordings to be published for non-commercial and/or commercial purposes without a fee.
31. SIVC holds the privilege of clarifying or modifying the rules as it deems necessary up until June 5th, 2016.
